

The Star & Chronicle

Freedom, national: Slavery, sectional!
The Star & Chronicle, published on the 31st ult., a fire broke out in an old, dry store building on the north side of the Public Square in Wilkes-Barre, and before it could be checked consumed seventeen business stands, considerably injured Stoeck's Hotel. Losses estimated at $10,000, which are covered by insurance, and considerably more uninsured. About $5,000 loss falls on the Locomotion company.

Foreign News.
The Emperor Napoleon reached Genoa on the 12th May, where he was received with the greatest pomp and enthusiasm. He has issued a stirring address, full of professions of love for Italy, and confident of success.

The Austrians are rather retreating and concentrating than advancing, and complain of much sickness among their troops. They compel the people among whom they are, to provide them with means of support.

Rumors of disaffection among the Hungarians, and of Kosuth's movements with it are not among them, at least, but nothing of a definite nature is known.

Liverpool, May 14.—There is a decline in Cotton and an advance in Breadstuffs.

A steamer is now, due with later news, but intelligence has been delayed by a quarrel among the Telegraphers.

THE VIRGINIA ELECTION we hope has taught the Opposition in the South one good lesson. Instead of treating Slavery as their fathers treated it, and as their friends in the North view it—as an evil, to be endured, but not to be extended—they close to attempt to give with the Democrats in love for that accursed thing.

Buchanan's Administration is an unpopular one in Virginia as elsewhere; Goggin, the Opp. candidate for Governor is a popular man, and aside from his miserable negroism is a good and capable man; but instead of confining himself to the one issue of Buchananism, and the National questions, he spent his time and breath in praising the sectional interest of Slavery, and in denouncing John Letcher, the Impostion candidate, because the latter some years since avowed his sympathy with the Anti-Slavery feeling in Western Virginia.

This disgusted the true conservative Republican element in the State, which, though not noisy, is strong; and thus, while Goggin gained largely in the slaveholding portion, Letcher gained also among the free men, and is elected. So the Opposition have lost Virginia, by this base trucking to the Slave power. One or more of the Congressmen elected are not of the "regular" Dem. nominees: what they are, time must show.

No Go.—As a last resort, the Buchananites of Pennsylvania have hoped to get up a "straight American" nomination, and accordingly a State Convention was called last week in Harrisburg. But, alas! only fifteen actual delegates, said to be from nine counties, could be gathered, who did not attempt the farce of making a nomination, but resolved to "stand firm to their sacred principles," and separated with tears in their hearts, amidst the applause of about twenty deeply interested spectators! The "straights" seem to be "played out."

THREE OF THEM.—We know not where three such well printed, well-edited, and handsome sheets can be found, all belonging to one side, in any of our newer counties, as the Wilkes-Barre Record, the Pittston Gazette, and the Scranton Republican. Their editors are gentlemanly as well as vigorous writers; they are an honor to their party, their county, and their profession; and under their auspices, Luzerne county must become Republican. Their Union opponent is a keen veteran, but he has more than his match at present.

In forming a State Ticket, select good men, who will not consent to be used by any faction for improper or selfish purposes. Inquire into the motives of those most urgent for particular nominations. Our party is on the rising wave of popular favor, and it only needs prudent guidance to retain the confidence of the masses, the bone and sinew of the State, to whom good government is most desirable.—Wilkes-Barre Record.

Hon. Nathaniel B. Brown has been appointed Post Master in Philadelphia, in place of Geo. W. Westcott, removed for his corrupt practices. Mr. Buchanan was to be praised for this removal and this appointment.—The District Attorney, Van Dyke, is alleged to be quite as worthy of removal, for retaining public monies.

The Jersey Shore Republican, last week, came out strongly against Gov. PACKER, and it is quite widely rumored is about to be removed to Williamsport, to board the lions of the Gazette in their den.

OHIO.—The Democratic State Convention nominated Lansing Sloat for Congress, and Joshua B. Sikes for Inspector of State Penitentiary. The Portland Times says the very admission seems to have impressed upon the minds of democrats the necessity of organization, and the surging of those personal feelings which have been too often awakened, having had the tendency to weaken and disturb our union and efficiency. The Republicans nominated David Logan for Congress, and Wm. T. Matlock, Penitentiary Commissioner.

News Items from Other Counties.

On the morning of the 31st ult., a fire broke out in an old, dry store building on the north side of the Public Square in Wilkes-Barre, and before it could be checked consumed seventeen business stands, considerably injured Stoeck's Hotel. Losses estimated at $10,000, which are covered by insurance, and considerably more uninsured. About $5,000 loss falls on the Locomotion company.

Rev. Dr. Odenheimer, of Millard, a High Churchman, is chosen P. E. Bishop in New Jersey, in place of G. W. Doane, dec'd.

In Wilkes-Barre, 600 additional subscriptions have been made to the original $20,000 raised for a Water Company.

A MORAL WRECK.—Last evening, while passing around the depot, in a reportorial capacity, we met an individual disgustingly filthy in appearance, and reeling under the effects of liquid poison, who, during our boyhood, was engaged in a flourishing business in a northern town, and at one time occupied a seat in the Legislature of Pennsylvania, where he was admired for his talents, and esteemed for his sterling integrity and moral worth. We met him last night for the first time in many years, to find him a poor degraded drunkard—a bankrupt in wealth and reputation—a complete moral wreck!—Harrisburg Telegraph.

The Miltonian says they have a street sprinkler which lays the dust in all the business portions of that borough.

A little son of Charles Savage, of Danville, fell from the abutment of the Danville Bridge, while playing, and falling nearly thirty feet, fractured his skull, and expired in a few hours.

Senator Cameron, and the officers of the Northern Central Railroad have been visiting the interior and North and West Branch portions of Penn'a.

We were shown a few days ago the charter of the Northumberland Fire Company, dated 1796, just 63 years ago. It is written upon parchment, rather illegible, and is altogether a venerable looking document. We have been told that the company has been in existence ever since the time of its charter, and that its meetings have been regularly held. This is certainly one of the oldest fire companies in the State, and perhaps there is no other whose charter extends back and whose meetings have been regularly for more than half a century.—Sunbury Gazette.

It is expected that Lock Haven will be reached by Railroad by the 20th inst.

The Madison Academy, at Waterly, Luzerne county, has been changed to a Graded School, under charge of Rev. Samuel Shaffer. In Hazleton the Graded School has been re-organized, and placed in charge of C. L. Ryncerson, A. M.

SAD CASE.—A boy named Frank Baltis, about seven years old, was found in the Canal at the Lock near Wilkes-Barre, on Friday morning. He had been sent to school the day before, but played truant, and went to fish in the Canal, and must have fallen in and drowned.

The late fire in the woods in Luzerne county, destroyed about one hundred and fifty telegraph poles.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mrs. Fanny Kibble was found dead at her residence in Nippenose township, Lycoming county, last week.

Hiram Mix, long time one of the most respected and accomplished citizens of Towanda, recently committed suicide at the Lewis House, Binghamton. Cause—Intemperance.

The Opposition in Harrisburg polled near 700 votes at their primary election.

A little son of Calvin B. Jacobs, of Hollidaysburg, by some means got a grain of corn in one nostril. On complaining of the pain, a physician was sent for, who made an examination, but failed to discover the grain. A few days after, while the child was lying down, Mr. Jacobs thought he saw the grain, and immediately called in the physician, who came prepared with an instrument to remove it. The child refused to be operated upon, but finally went to the yard, where by vigorous blowing the grain of corn was dislodged, and on examining it was found to have two sprouts upon it. In all probability, death would have ensued but for this timely removal.

James Macmaus of Centre and Hendrick B. Wright of Luzerne are proposed by the Locomotion party for Governor of Pennsylvania.

Circuses were never so much at a discount as at present. The Eisenbeis concert was sold out by the Sheriff and they all appear to be well kicked from town to town.

On Monday week the Sanbury Ferry was again leased to Ira T. Clement for $100, the former lease for this year, for $180, not being taken up by Mr. Clement.

The Catawissa train of cars run over three coals, above Port Clinton, on Saturday last, and was thrown from the track. The mail and passengers were brought on in the night train.

At the last meeting of the Northumberland Presbytery, Robert Bryson was licensed to preach, and Mr. Salman was ordained to the ministry.

A little girl in M'ewensville accidentally ran a splinter in her foot while returning from school one evening; no notice was taken of the accident, until about nine days afterwards, when spasmodic action resulted from it, causing her death.

A prisoner named M'Quay, "in" for larceny, has escaped from the Sanbury Jail.

MARSH & CO'S Grain and Grass Cutter for 1859

The Lightest and Best COMBINED REAPER AND MOWER ever offered to the Farming Public.

Manufactured at the Lewisburg Foundry & Agricultural Works.

A Horse Power Machine adapted to cutting all kinds and conditions of Grass and Grain is what the Farmer wants upon ground adapted to any practical labor-saving machine of the kind. The LEWISBURG REAPER AND MOWER is warranted to cut Standing or Lodged Grass and Grain, wet or dry, requiring no Raker in Mowing. For cutting Grain, it is used for a rear or side delivery of stack as may be desired.

It combines in its operation all the advantages of a long experience and the very latest improvements. No other form of Reaper and Mower combined, yet introduced, has shown the same lightness of power and ease of draught.

We respectfully solicit a TRIAL, upon the above stated facts, and if we fail to give entire satisfaction we will consider it no sale. In short, we warrant our combined Reaper and Mower to be all we say it is.

Upon the policy of getting more merit for less money, greater advantages at home than abroad, who will buy elsewhere, before trying a plan by which money, time and trouble will be saved? JAMES S. MARSH & CO. Lewisburg, Union county, Penn'a. June 1, 1859.
